Acts 4:5-12

The day after they had arrested Peter and John for teaching about Jesus and the resurrection, the rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?" Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is 'the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.'

There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved."

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; *
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: *
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: *
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: *
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: *
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: *
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

1 John 3:16-24

We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us-- and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?

Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

John 10:11-18

Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away-- and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down

*Jesus said, "Feed my lambs, tend my sheep." For thus says the Lord God:
I myself will search for my sheep and I will seek them out.
As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scatter'd sheep, so I will seek out my sheep.*

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

All are welcome at the altar during communion. Please stand or kneel at the altar rail to receive the bread in the palm of your outstretched hands. Receive the wine by drinking from the cup as it is extended to you, or by touching the bread lightly to the wine. Gluten- corn- wheat- and dairy-free wafers are now available for people with allergies. Please let the communion minister know your preference. We will provide a separate chalice. If you do not wish to receive Communion, you may come to the altar, cross your arms across your chest and receive a blessing. Please join the choir in singing the hymns, or sit quietly and reflect on the texts.

Hungry Neighbors-Help by Phone is the group the Saint Andrew's supports which channels groceries to our neighbors in need. If there is food in your kitchen, rejoice and share that joy with someone whose cupboard is bare. There is a basket in the back of the church which we take to the Help by Phone people each month.

St. Andrew's in Antarctica

Ever wonder what long-time parishioner Bob Bindschadler does when he "goes South for the winter"? As a scientist studying the Antarctic ice sheet up close and personal for the past 30 years, he's had some pretty unusual adventures. Most of his time there has been spent far from the comforts of warm research stations, working instead out of small field camps, sleeping in tents and forgoing many creature comforts for weeks on end. Bob will share his exploits with us next week at Adult Forum and tell us how his spirituality is an important part of his frigid experiences..

Spring Work Day—Spend a lovely spring day with some of your favorite people in one of your favorite places! There will be a work day on Saturday, May 19th. There will be tasks suitable to every level of expertise and energy, from gardening to installing electrical fixtures. Don't miss the fun.

Office Closed

Due to an combination of Clergy Conference and staff vacation, the office will be closed this week. In case of a pastoral emergency, please call 202.714.8134.

Nursery Supervisor Position--

St. Andrew's is seeking an experienced child care professional to provide care for the youngest members of the parish and assume operational responsibility for St. Andrew's nursery. The Nursery Supervisor should have education and/or experience in early child development or education, should be extremely organized and responsible, and should have interest or experience supervising a small staff of child care professionals. Work hours are primarily on Sunday mornings, with other days and times as needed, depending on parish need and candidate availability. This is a part-time, hourly position. Send a resume and cover letter explaining why you are interested in the position to hr@saeccp.org.

Do you speak or read a language other than English?

Would you like to help with the reading of the Gospel on Pentecost Sunday (May 27th)? If so, please let Carol or Dave know what language you'd like to read in and which service you'd like to participate in. We can provide copies of the Gospel for you to read (John 15:26-27; 16:4b-15) if you do not have a translation. Please let us know of your interest by May 20th.

Sunday School and Children's Chapel

Many thanks to our Sunday School teachers, who have worked so hard during the past few months! The last day of Sunday School is May 20th. We'd like to continue having Children's Chapel as many Sundays as possible through the summer months. If you can lead or assist with Children's Chapel ANY Sunday during the summer, please let Dave know at your earliest convenience. office@saeccp.org

Director of Children's and Youth Ministry Search Process

Our first applications have begun to come in, and the Search Committee, chaired by John Rigg, will soon begin to review them. We are grateful for the many individuals and families who increased their pledges to support this part-time hire. For more information about the position, follow the link from our website or go directly to www.saeccp.org/dcym-search.php.

Website transition

Erik Devereux has concluded his service as webmaster for the St. Andrew's website. We are very grateful for Erik's work these past few years. For the time being, some parts of the website may not be up to date. Links to service recordings have been temporarily suspended. Sermons are still available through the website, or you can go to them directly at <http://sermonsstandrews.blogspot.com/>. If you would like to be part of the website transition, as we consider alternative (simpler) ways of maintaining the website, please contact office@saeccp.org.

From the Environment Committee—Don't be a drip - fix that leak! Leaky faucets can waste thousands of gallons of water each year, like money down the drain. Repair or replace old or damaged fixtures. If you're not sure you have a leak, check the water meter before and after a two-hour period when no water is being used. If the meter does not read exactly the same, you probably have a leak.
